

Talent driven culture.

SPACE MANAGER

Ref.ª T202410

Our partner is a Portuguese organization focused on promoting the advancement and consolidation of Portugal as an international reference in the Aeronautical, Space & Defence Industries.

The organization is selecting a Space Manager to drive the development of this area.

Location: Lisbon, Portugal

Main Accountabilities:

- Develop institutional relationships within the Space national and international Ecosystem;
- Develop close relationships with Members to understand their areas of activity, challenges, and opportunities;
- Provide business insights and develop international industrial relations and networks;
- Project management and activities portfolio prioritization to deliver all defined objectives.

Requirements & Qualifications:

- Degree in Engineering, or other relevant for the role;
- +2 years of experience specifically in Space field (mandatory);
- Experience in building strong networking & mapping the high potential opportunities areas;
- Project management experience is valued for the position;
- Good communication skills, both written and spoken;
- Proactive and self-motivated able to adapt to dynamic contexts;
- Teamwork and interpersonal skills;
- Fluent English, both written and spoken;
- Availability for national and international travels.

Offer:

- Wage package appropriate to the presented experience;
- Career development opportunity;
- Contractual link established directly with the client.

If you meet the above requirements, please send your application via email: careers@qsr.consulting with reference to T202410_Rec_SPACE MANAGER